POLITICS IN MANCHESTER

A Most Quiet Canvass Is Anticipated This Spring.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEETS

License Matter Comes Up Tomorrow-May Festival. Under Arrest.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. At the special meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-morrow night the question of the proposed license ordinance will be discussed and final action taken.

expected to be present to make their There may be further amendments to the original ordinance as it came from the Finance Committee.

POLITICS ARE QUIET. Nothing sensational has yet come up in politics, and the coming primary is expected to be the most quiet ever held. The vote is calculated by political sharps to be the smallest ever polled in an important election.

The registration does not reach five hundred, and it is not thought that more than three hundred and fifty will vote at the coming primary.
Only two new candidates for Council are suggested—Mr. C. C. Jones, in the Frst Ward, and Mr. Harry Owen, in he Second.

All the old members but Mr. Fahr will stand for re-election, and it does not look like there will be any opposition to Mayor Maurice.

UNDER ARREST.

The old negro is demented to some degree, and has been in trouble on similar charges before.

charge, saides under the leading vocal teachers.

The contraito, Miss Mabel McBain, has just returned from a sojourn in the musical atmosphere of New York, perfecting her rich voice under guidance of the best masters.

The tenor, Mr. Boschen, is winning golden opinions for himself in the choir at Grove Avenue, and the eveniy modulated baritone of Mr. Wilkes causes much del ght in his quartette work, and especial pleasure in his finely rendered solos.

The selections ombrace a variety of solos, duetts, trios, and quartettes—the most brilliant and attractive sacred music known. The cause is the best and Dr. Baker is chairman of the general committee, with Mr. Ramos directing the nusse.
